CASE NUMBER: 8:22CR256-001

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of five (5) years.

MANDATORY CONDITIONS

1. You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
2. You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
3. You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
  - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
4. ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
5. ☒ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
6. ☒ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
7. ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

You must comply with the standard conditions that have been adopted by this court as well as with any other conditions on the attached page.

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

1. You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment, unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
2. After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
3. You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
4. You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
5. You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
6. You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
7. You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to

- unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
8. You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
  9. If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
  10. You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
  11. You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
  12. If the probation officer determines that you pose a risk to another person (including an organization), the probation officer may require you to notify the person about the risk and you must comply with that instruction. The probation officer may contact the person and confirm that you have notified the person about the risk.
  13. You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.

U.S. Probation Office Use Only

A U.S. probation officer has instructed me on the conditions specified by the court and has provided me with a written copy of this judgment containing these conditions. SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

- a. You must not purchase or possess, use, distribute, or administer any alcohol, just the same as any other narcotic or controlled substance.
- c. You must attend, pay for and successfully complete any diagnostic evaluations, treatment or counseling programs, or approved support groups (e.g., AA/NA) for alcohol and/or controlled substance abuse, as directed by the probation officer.
- f. You must attend, successfully complete, and pay for any mental health diagnostic evaluations and treatment or counseling programs as directed by the probation officer.
- g. You must comply with all rules and regulations of the Bureau of Immigration Customs Enforcement and, if deported, shall not reenter the United States or reside therein without the express, written permission of the Secretary of the United States Department of Homeland Security.
- n. You must provide the probation officer with access to any requested financial information.
- aa. You must provide the probation officer with truthful and complete information regarding all computer hardware, software, electronic services, and data storage media to which you have access.
- bb. You must cooperate with the U.S. Probation Office's Computer Monitoring Program, as directed by the probation officer. Cooperation shall include, but not be limited to, identifying computer systems, Internet capable devices, and/or similar electronic devices you have access to, and allowing the installation of monitoring software/hardware on said devices. You and/or the probation officer must inform all parties that access a monitored computer, or similar electronic device, that the device is subject to monitoring. You may be limited to possessing only one personal Internet capable device, to facilitate the probation officer's ability to effectively monitor your Internet related activities, including, but not limited to, email correspondence, Internet usage history, and chat conversations. You must not remove, tamper with, reverse engineer, or in any way circumvent installed software. You must also permit random examinations of said computer systems, Internet capable devices, and similar electronic devices, and related computer peripherals, such as CD's and other media, under your control. You must pay the costs of monitoring.
- ii. You must submit your person, residence, property, office, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects to a search conducted by a probation officer at any time; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; You must warn any other residents that the premises and any shared devices may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
- jj. You must not use or have installed any programs specifically and solely designed to encrypt data, files, folders, or volumes on any media. Also, you must not install or use any program for the purpose of "wiping," deleting or cleaning any media device.
- ll. You must have no contact, nor reside with children under the age of 18, including your own children, unless approved in advance by the probation officer in consultation with the treatment providers. You must report all contact with children to the probation officer and the treatment provider. Should you have contact with a child, you are required to immediately remove yourself from the situation and notify your probation officer within 24 hours of this contact.
- mm. You must not loiter near schools, school yards, parks, arcades, playgrounds, amusement parks, or other places used primarily by children under the age of 18 unless approved in advance by the probation officer.
- nn. You must not associate with or have any contact with convicted sex offenders unless in a therapeutic setting and with the permission of the probation officer.

CASE NUMBER: 8:22CR256-001

- oo. You are restricted from engaging in any occupation, business, or profession, including volunteer work, where you have access to children under the age of 18, without prior approval of the probation officer. Acceptable employment shall include a stable verifiable work location and the probation officer must be granted access to the work site.
- pp. You must have all residences and employment pre-approved by the probation officer ten (10) days prior to moving or changing employment. You must comply with any residency restriction ordinances in the city where you reside.
- rr. You must undergo a sex offense-specific evaluation and participate in a sex offender treatment and/or mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer. You must abide by all rules, requirements, and conditions of the sex offender treatment program(s), including submission to polygraph testing. You must sign releases of information to allow all professionals involved in your treatment and monitoring to communicate and share documentation. You must pay for these services as directed by the probation officer.
- ss. You must submit to an initial polygraph examination and subsequent maintenance testing, at intervals to be determined by the probation officer, to assist in treatment, planning, and case monitoring. You must pay for these services as directed by the probation officer.
- tt. You must not possess, view, or otherwise use material including videos, magazines, photographs, computer generated depictions, or any other forms that depict sexually explicit conduct involving children or adults, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2256.
- zz. You must report to the Supervision Unit of the U.S. Probation Office for the District of Nebraska between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., 111 South 18th Plaza, Suite C79, Omaha, Nebraska, (402) 661-7555, within seventy-two (72) hours of being placed on probation or release from confinement and, thereafter, as directed by the probation officer.
